Greetings:

The scenes on the front cover are familiar ones to me and my family, and to hundreds of other Montanans whose parents came in the early 1900s to make their homes in what was then a new western state. The two views, looking southwest between Poplar and Wolf Point on the Scobey road, overlook a "Homestead Acre" honoring our pioneering families.

This specially designated site is the second in a series of Centennial Acres commemorating Montana's 100th anniversary of admission to statehood in 1989. Acre I, at the Headwaters State Park near Three Forks, is representative of the exploration era and recreational opportunities. As Acre II, the "Homestead Acre" recognizes settlement and the soil subsequently turned to agricultural use.

Montana has changed in many ways since achieving statehood in 1889, but we still can enjoy similar landscapes and the promise of new horizons as the state approaches its second century. For details about the Centennial Acre program — and other activities in preparation for the 100th birthday — write or call the Montana Statehood Centennial Office, P.O. Box 1989, Capitol Station, Helena, MT 59620 (406/444-1989).

Sincerely,

Ted Schwinden

All STN calls are recorded with originating number, time of day, number dialed and length of call.

All in-state and out-of-state calls made on the STN are billed to the originating party.
